

CURRICULUM VITAE

Lisa-Cheree Martin

University of Cape Town • Development Policy Research Unit
E-mail: lisa.martin@uct.ac.za

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS

2019 – present Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Economics, Stellenbosch University
2018 Masters (Economics), Stellenbosch University
2017 Bachelor of Commerce Honours (Economics), Stellenbosch University
2014 – 2016 Bachelor of Commerce, Stellenbosch University

EMPLOYMENT

Nov 2021 – present Junior Research Fellow, Development Policy Research Unit (DPRU),
University of Cape Town
Jul 2020 – Oct 2021 Teaching Assistant (Advanced Macroeconomic Policy), Department of Economics, Stellenbosch University
Feb 2018 – Nov 2018 Departmental Research and Demi Assistant, Department of Economics, Stellenbosch University
Feb 2018 – Nov 2018 Departmental Tutor, Department of Economics, Stellenbosch University
Jan 2016 – Dec 2019 Private Undergraduate Tutor

PUBLICATIONS

Ross, R. and Martin, L., 2021. Accommodation and Resistance: The Housing of Cape Town's Enslaved and Freed Population Before and After Emancipation. Journal of Southern African Studies, pp.1-16.
Ekama, K., Fourie, J., Heese, H. and Martin, L., 2021. When Cape slavery ended: Introducing a new slave emancipation dataset. Explorations in Economic History, p.101390.

WORKING PAPERS

Martin, L., 2019. Machine Learning vs Traditional Forecasting Methods: An Application to South African GDP (No.
12/2019).

CONFERENCE AND SEMINAR PRESENTATIONS (Selected)

Oct 2021: 'On a Mission: The Wealth Outcomes of Emancipated Slaves at Cape Colony Mission Stations', African Economic History Network Regional Meeting, Stellenbosch, South Africa.

Sept 2020: 'A 'Free' Labour Force: The Mobility of Emancipated Slaves at the Cape, 1833 - 1891', Economic History Association Annual Meeting, online.

Oct 2019: 'The Price of Freedom: Using Emancipation Records to Analyse the Characteristics of the Enslaved at the Cape Colony, 1834', African Economic History Network Annual Meeting, Barcelona, Spain.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Economic history, behavioural economics, development economics

SKILLS

Econometric analysis, GIS, qualitative and quantitative analysis using R, SQL, Stata